Video Questions:

1. What are direct sources of light? How does a radiometer show that light has energy?

2. What do you call anything through which you can easily and clearly see?

3. What are some examples of things that are transparent?

4. What do you call something through which no light can pass? What are some examples of things that are opaque?

5. What does it mean to describe something as “luminous”? What are some examples of things that are luminous?

6. How do rays of light reflect off rough or smooth surfac